

I sincerely hope this is not overturned as I have enjoyed the relative peace given to my family during quiet time in the evenings, early mornings and weekends. I might have been the first to sign up for this legislation and I would appreciate it being kept in force. Thank you.